

FISCAL NOTE

HB 859 - SB 926

March 10, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Permits a parent to refuse to turn over a child for scheduled visitation, if the parent who has visitation rights has had his/her drivers' license suspended or revoked due to DUI conviction and such parent drives a motor vehicle to pick up the child for visitation. Refusal to turn over the child will not constitute a violation of the terms of the visitation order or parenting plan.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes some additional court actions regarding visitation order; however, these are not estimated to be significant.
